RACER'S SPEAKERS SERIES

Sailing on the Estuary - Kame Richards

Kame Richards, former owner and sail designer of Pineapple Sails, is returning to OYC for another outstanding presentation on Sailing on the Estuary. As most of you are aware, Kame is the former owner of Golden Moon (Express 37) where he raced in the Rolex Big Boat Express 37 Nationals for years. Kame is the current owner of a Harbor 20 (Obsession) which he races in various estuary races including the OYC Sunday Brunch Series. His vast knowledge of racing covers thousands of miles of sailing. In this talk Kame will share his experience on Sailing the Estuary.

This presentation is free, but tax deductible donations will be gladly accepted for Alameda Community Sailing Center, a 501c3 non-profit. www.sailalameda.com
